GENERAL SECRETARY AND CO-OPTED AS WORKING PRESIDENT
COM. DINAKAR S. PUNJA TAKES OVER AS GENERAL SECRETARY

We reproduce hereunder the contents of circular No. 2014/27 of date on the captioned subject issued by Com. Harvinder Singh, Working President, AINBOF for your information & circulation.

QUOTE: "The 11th Central Committee Meeting of AINBOF was held at Mumbai on 23rd May, 2014. The Meeting was attended by all Office-Bearers and Central Committee members from most of the affiliates and was presided over by Com. Nirmal Bari, President.

Com. Ravindra Kuveskar, Secretary of the State Unit of AINBOF of Maharashtra State, welcomed the participants and thanked the Federation leadership for having given the opportunity to Maharashtra State unit to host the Meeting. Office-bearers of the State Committee then welcomed the office-bearers and Central Committee Members with floral bouquets and Rose buds. Thereafter Com. Nirmal Bari, President, welcomed the Central Committee members to the meeting.

Com. Harvinder Singh, General Secretary, after extending a warm welcome to entire executive committee, in his initial remarks reported about the functioning of the Federation and technical problems being faced by him in undertaking the responsibilities as General Secretary. Members appreciated his role and achievements of the Federation under his leadership. Then as per agenda, the minutes of the 10th Central Committee were presented and the house unanimously approved the same. Thereafter, Com. Harvinder Singh presented the General Secretary's report. After the para on homage was read out, the house paid homage to the departed souls by observing two minutes silence as a mark of respect. The Report covered exhaustively all the developments at national and international level, Economic scenario, Banking arena, trade union movement in the country and in the Banking Industry including developments at Salary Revision front. The written report was supplemented by the General Secretary with oral briefings on developments.

The house then deliberated threadbare on the General Secretary's Report. Com. Dinakar S. Punja, Com. Dilip Saha, Com. Debashish Gosh, Com. Manimaran, Com Reddy and others discussed on the following issues:-

- Reduction in threshold limit of marks in APAR for promotion,
- Disparity in perquisites and benefits to officers among the Public Sector Banks,
- Increase in stressed assets of the Public Sector Banks and their recovery,
- Problems in CTS

The General Secretary replied to all the issues raised by the members to the satisfaction of the House and the House adopted the General Secretary's Report unanimously. Then the audited accounts of the Federation for the year ended 31/12/2013 were presented before the house and were unanimously adopted. All affiliates promised to clear their subscription dues by the dates advised by them but not later than 31st July, 2014 in any case. Levy dues were also promised to be cleared at the earliest.

CO-OPTION OF OFFICE BEARERS

The General Secretary expressed his desire to relinquish the post of General Secretary of AINBOF, due to his preoccupation in the affairs of AIBOC, subsequent to his getting elected as the General Secretary of AIBOC. He added that some other member can focus more on the activities and programmes of AINBOF on taking up its leadership. The House deliberated on the issue and felt that though the undersigned be allowed to relinquish the post of General Secretary as desired by him, yet he should continue to be a Principal office bearer of the Federation. Thereafter the House unanimously co-opted the undersigned as the Working President and Com. Dinakar S. Punja as the General Secretary. The House congratulated both of them and wished all the success in their new assignments.

SECOND TRIENNIAL CONFERENCE OF AINBOF

The first triennial conference of the Federation was held in September 2011 and the present Central Committee is completing its term in September 2014. The House unanimously decided to hold the Second Triennial Conference of the Federation in September 2014. The state unit of Delhi showed its willingness to host the Conference in Delhi. After deliberations, the House unanimously decided to hold the Second Triennial Conference of AINBOF, tentatively, on 5th and 6th of September 2014 at Delhi. We shall inform the details to all the affiliates / members once the same is worked out. "
