QUOTE:

“It is really condemnable that despite initiation of hunger strike and risk to precious human lives looming large, there is no change in the ruthless attitude of the Dhanlaxmi Bank Management. The 22nd day of Indefinite Strike by DBOO, took a dramatic turn when a big police force came to the strike venue at Thrissur at 4 pm, yesterday, and arrested the fasting Comrades Murali Krishnan and Krishna Kumar on the strength of medical reports of District Medical Officer. The area reverberated with thundering slogans of the members including lady comrades and the baton of hunger strike was immediately taken over by Com. R. Sandhya and Com. Emil Joy who commenced the indefinite hunger strike. Management must remember that any effort to scuttle the agitation will only provide more fuel to the fire of struggle. A history has been created in the officers' movement by our lady comrades. Number of our Lady Comrades are sitting late till night at the venue of the Dharna i.e. Samara Pandal. Our Red Salutations to them to bolster the momentum of agitation !

Today also "SAMARA SAHAYA SAMITHI" is organizing a massive rally at Thrissur. Mr.Kodiyeri Balakrishnan, State Seretary CPI (M), Mr.T.N.Prathapan MLA would be addressing the rally which would start at 2.30 pm in front of Dhanlaxmi Bank Head Office, Naickanal, Thrissur.

We are happy that all Affiliates / State Committee / members are contributing with all their might to the agitational programme. The Confederation has provided one time relief of Rs. 5 lacs to DBOO for organizing all action programme and has approved an expenditure of Rs. 8.5 lacs towards cost of advertisements related to DBOO struggle in the leading Malayali newspapers. The Kerala State Committee has also decided to collect Rs. 500/- per head for contributing to DBOO strike fund. Federation of Bank of India Officers' Associations has also decided to provide assistance of Rs. 50,000/- to DBOO. The SBIOA (CC) in Chennai contributed Rs. 50,000/- and Com. H. Parmanabhan, Senior D.G.S. of IOBOA announced personal contribution of Rs. 10,000/-. We request all our members / Affiliates / State Committee to contribute in cash or kind for the struggle of DBOO.

Comrades, we have been exploring all possibilities to resolve the issues but exhort all our members not to relent on our agitational programme and struggle. General Secretaries of Affiliates of the Confederation are informally meeting at Thrissur on Tuesday i.e. 07.07.2015, to take stock of the situation and decide future course of action."
